

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF COMPOSERS, AUTHORS AND PUBLISHERS
THIRTY ROCKEFELLER PLAZA
NEW YORK 20, N.Y.

J. M. COLLINS
RADIO DIVISION

September 17th, 1948

Miss Louise Deitz, Exec. Sec'y
Radio Club
Smith College
Northampton, Mass.

Dear Miss Deitz:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of September 13th in which you advise that Smith College will commence the operation of its new radio station WCSR on September 20th.

We shall be very happy to grant a gratuitous license to Smith College for the performance of ASCAP music on its radio station. This license is granted with the understanding that the programs to be broadcast are to be non-commercial.

The license herewith granted is for the period of one year expiring September 1, 1949. It is understood, of course, that if the station should change its policy and engage in the sale of time commercially, that this license will be automatically terminated and it will be necessary for the station to obtain our regular form of commercial agreement.

We are enclosing herewith a copy of our latest membership list and restricted list. Should the station desire to broadcast any of the numbers indicated on the restricted list, it will be necessary to advise us, so that we can contact the publishers for the necessary permission.

Wishing you every success in the operation of your station, we are,

Cordially yours,

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF COMPOSERS,
AUTHORS AND PUBLISHERS.

J. M. COLLINS

JMC:KMC
ENC.

